"MERCURY" HEAD DIME COLLECTION
1916 to 1945 Inclusive

This type was designed by A. A. Weinman, whose initials appear as a monogram above the date to the right.

Although this type dime is known as the "Mercury" dime, the head is in fact a representation of Liberty with wings crowning her cap, symbolizing liberty of thought.

Letters S for San Francisco and D for Denver are the mint marks, which appear following the word ONE on the reverse side of the coin. Coins struck at Philadelphia have no mint mark.

Below each opening is shown the quantity minted.
